MEMORIAL HOSPITAL FOR INFANTS,

HOSPITAL.

INCORPORATED JANUARY 19, 1881.

TWENTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

Press of David Clapp & Son.

The patients taken care of in the hospital wards are under two years of age. The admission of patients is not confined to residents of Boston. Older children under twelve years of age are treated in the Out-Patient Department.

A Post-graduate course of instruction for nurses is given at the Hospital by the Hospital Staff.

The Hospital gives a course of instruction to Nursery Maids, in the care of infants.

Relatives are admitted to the wards on Sunday from ten to twelve o'clock.

THE TREASURER'S REPORT.

THE Treasurer in submitting his report calls attention to the receipts and expenditures for the past year, and regrets to say that there is an excess of expenditure over income of $1,204.58.

We have received from Mr. Thomas Minns, as executor of the estate of Robert Charles Billings, a bequest of $3,000, the condition of the bequest being that such sum shall be invested as the Robert Charles Billings Fund and the income only used for general purposes of the Hospital. This money has been invested.

Under the will of Mrs. Sarah E. Potter the Hospital is named as a beneficiary, and will later receive the sum of $10,000. As we also have an interest in the residuary of Mrs. Potter's estate, we expect to receive under her will a sum considerably larger than the amount just named.

The Hospital has also been named as a legatee in the will of Miss Mary McGregor Means, and we shall later receive $3000 from Miss Means's estate.

Under date of July 6th last, the Treasurer exchanged the three $1000 Mastin Sub-division Loan Bonds (or, to describe them more strictly, the three coupon promissory notes signed by the Mastins) for thirty shares in the Trust Property held under an agreement of trust for the protection and benefit of those who like the Hospital are interested as creditors in the Mastin property. The Trustees are Edward D. Codman and Moses Williams, Jr. The thirty shares of stock are in their hands, and the Treasurer holds their receipt for the same. This stock belongs to the Gifford Fund, and was one of the earliest investments of the Hospital.

REPORT OF THE MEDICAL DIRECTOR.

ALTHOUGH the present Hospital has grown less and less fitted to meet the demands which the infants of the poorer classes are continually making on our care, yet it is gratifying to note that there are recorded 723 visits more than during the year 1903. 233 patients were admitted to the medical wards and 64 to the surgical, making a total of 297. In the out-patient department, 1903 medical patients came under our care and 631 surgical, amounting to 2640. The medical visits were 7606 and the surgical 4031, amounting to 11,637,—723 visits more than last year.

When we consider how very small and poorly ventilated are the rooms connected with our out-patient department, it is remarkable how much good has been done to the community and how many favorable results have been accomplished. The medical and surgical staff deserve the greatest credit for this work, which they are carrying on under the most adverse circumstances in their cramped quarters.

Eleven graduate nurses have received their diplomas during the year, and eleven nursery maids. Most favorable reports have been received from the families where the nurses are employed in regard to the kind of teaching which it is our endeavor to carry out in this school. The care and nursing of young infants is but slightly known by those nurses who take their diplomas in the schools connected with large hospitals, and consequently there is a great need of having these nurses receive post graduate instruction in the care of infants. It has frequently during the year been reported to us that when our nursery maids have been employed in cases where a child being ill and a trained nurse engaged to take care of the child during this illness, that the nursery maid showed the result of her hospital training, in that she worked in harmony with the nurse who was over her. As is well known, this is not usually the case where the nursery maid has not been trained to work with the trained nurse. This lack of harmony and the great amount of friction arising in cases of this kind is conducive of detriment to the baby and of general discomfort to the family where the two nurses are employed.

We are looking forward to the time when in the new hospital, well equipped, properly ventilated and away from its present unhygienic surroundings, we can keep the wards open in summer. This we hope at no distant time to do, when the new hospital is built on land adjoining the Fenway.

Of especial importance in the construction of the new hospital will be a proper provision for the care of premature babies. There is no place at present where this class of cases can be intelligently treated, and yet there is no doubt that there is a great demand for especial nursing and for the best hygienic surroundings if the lives of these premature infants are to be saved.

The Directors especially wish to acknowledge the services of Dr. Roger Spalding in the Medical service and Dr. James R. Torbert in the Surgical service. They appreciate the difficulties which will always arise in these departments so long as patients have to be treated in the present quarters.

The thanks of the Directors are given to the Ladies who so successfully conducted the fair, and also to the Ladies' Aid Society, which has contributed so much to the supplies of the Hospital.

The administration of the Hospital has been faithfully carried out under the Director of Nurses, Miss Jones, and the Assistant Secretary, Miss Aubin, to whom especial thanks are due.

The Directors wish to especially draw attention to the fact that as the Hospital is largely supported by private contributions all those who have the welfare of the Hospital at heart should endeavor to increase the number of annual subscribers.

The list of diseases treated in the wards and out-patient department is appended to this report.

THOMAS MORGAN ROTCH,
Medical Director.

THE OUT-PATIENT DEPARTMENT.

THIS department of the Hospital is increasing every year in importance and usefulness, and is practically self-supporting. During the past year there were over eleven thousand visits, including over two thousand new patients.

Medical and surgical cases not requiring hospital care are received for treatment daily from 9 to 11 A.M. (Sundays and holidays excepted). Cases for admission to the Hospital should be referred to the Out-Patient Physician during these hours.

Emergency cases will be admitted at any time if there is an existing vacancy. Questions in regard to such cases, and other matters of information, may be referred by telephone to the Hospital at any time.

The following tables represent the Medical and Surgical work done in the Out-Patient Department :—

Press of David Clapp & Son.

THE THOMAS MORGAN ROTCH JR. MEMORIAL HOSPITAL is a Hospital devoted to the medical and surgical treatment of infants

The patients taken care of in the hospital wards are under two years of age. The admission of patients is not confined to residents of Boston. Other children under twelve years of age are treated in the Out-Patient Department.

A Post-graduate course of instruction for nurses is given at the Hospital by the Hospital Staff.

The Hospital gives a course of instruction to Nursery Maids, in the care of infants.

Relatives are admitted to the wards on Sunday from ten to twelve o'clock.

REPORT OF THE MEDICAL DIRECTOR.

DURING the past year 271 infants have been admitted to the wards, and 2711 new patients have been treated in the Out-patient Department. This however does not represent the great extent of the work which is carried on in the inadequate quarters allotted to the out-patients. This can only be shown by the number of visits which has increased from 11637 in 1904 to 12745 in 1905. These figures are very significant as emphasizing the fact that a hospital for infants is much needed in our community, and that this need is shown by the number of beds in the wards being too small to accommodate all who apply for entrance, while where expansion is possible it is shown in the extra 1108 visits of out-patients, as contrasted with the 723 increase recorded for 1904.

What should especially be dwelt upon in this report is that while considerable extra expense has been incurred from having to provide fire escapes in accordance with the law, it is still very evident that our income does not cover our expenses by over $1200. There is no question but that the hospital is carrying on a very important work and one which is not being done elsewhere. It is perhaps not generally known that the expense of caring for babies is far greater than for adults and much greater than for children. The amount which has to be expended on washing and for nurses alone is, in an infant hospital, so much beyond what is usually recognized as sufficient for ordinary hospitals, that it almost precludes a proper amount of attention and care when infants are treated with older patients. For this reason it is imperative that our work should be carried on separately, and that those who are interested in saving life at the time when it is most important and difficult to do so, should make an effort to increase the general income by increasing the number of yearly subscribers.

Our institution is at present in a stage of crisis and change, and unless a large endowment is obtained so that its twenty-four years of valuable increasing work can be carried on and amplified, a serious blow will be given to the advancement of our knowledge of the diseases of early life, and to the reduction of the great mortality which is so marked in infants as contrasted with children and adults.

The Directors offer their thanks to the men and women who have in the past year made it possible by the annual fair to meet the expenses, which must necessarily be incurred if babies are to be cared for properly. They appreciate the efforts which these devoted friends of the Hospital have made, and would wish to see these efforts supplemented by an endowment fund which would make their work in the future less burdensome.

The present position of the institution is that the land for the new Hospital has been purchased and paid for : that the sum which is held in trust for the building of the Hospital is not sufficient by from $40,000 to $50,000 for building, and that even if the Hospital could be built, an endowment which would yield at least $10,000 to $12,000 a year would be required in addition to the present invested funds, to run the new building. The Directors have thought that this statement should be made to the Corporation and possibly to the public in order that it should be known with what difficulties the great humanitarian and scientific work of the hospital is surrounded.

It is with sincere regret that we mention the deaths of a number of friends of the Hospital, and subscribers to the annual fund for income. Mrs. Henry Callender, Mrs. George Burgess, Mrs. Richard Cary, Mrs. F. B. Greene, Miss Elsie Dexter, Mr. George Thatcher, and Mr. Francis Skinner, have all died during the past year.

The work in the two schools for nursing has been carried on with its usual success and ten graduate nurses and twelve nursery maids have received diplomas. This part of the Hospital work has proved year by year to be of great service to the public, and the waiting list for those who wish to obtain the services of our nursery maids is always large.

The Directors wish to acknowledge the great assistance given by the Ladies Aid Society in contributing as they do so liberally to the supplies for the Hospital, and to offer their thanks to them.

The Directors, in recognizing and thanking the regular Medical and Surgical staff for their services, wish to especially mention two gentlemen who have voluntarily and without appointment helped to fill out vacancies in the Out-patient Department ; this work has been done in the most satisfactory manner by Dr. Henry Ingersoll Bowditch and Dr. James R. Torbert ; and they also wish to thank Dr. Max Sturnick for his kindly help at various times.

In October, 1905, Miss Mary A. Jones, who has filled so admirably the position of Director of Nurses for six years, resigned in order to take up private nursing. Miss Jones' work has been marked not only by absolute devotion to the hospital interests, but by the most unusual executive ability and intelligent understanding of a very difficult problem. We incur a great loss by her resignation, and can only tell her how we all appreciate what she has done, and how much we regret that she cannot continue this especial work. Miss Fairbrother, who is admirably fitted from her experience as Head Nurse, has been appointed in Miss Jones' place and is managing the Hospital efficiently.

The Directors finally cannot praise too highly the care and devotion to her work shown with unflagging interest for twelve years by Miss Aubin. No other person connected with the institution understands and does so much to regulate the rather complicated details of the Hospital.

The list of diseases treated in the wards and in the Out-patient Department is appended to this report.

THOMAS MORGAN ROTCH,
Medical Director.

THE OUT-PATIENT DEPARTMENT.

THIS department of the Hospital is increasing every year in importance and usefulness, and is practically self-supporting. During the past year there were over twelve thousand visits, an increase of 1108 visits, including over two thousand new patients.

Medical and surgical cases not requiring hospital care are received for treatment daily from 9 to 11 A.M. (Sundays and holidays excepted). Cases for admission to the Hospital should be referred to the Out-Patient Physician during these hours.

Emergency cases will be admitted at any time if there is an existing vacancy. Questions in regard to such cases, and other matters of information, may be referred by telephone to the Hospital at any time.

TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

JANUARY 1, 1906, TO JANUARY 1, 1907.

BOSTON.

Press of David Clapp & Son.

THE INFANTS' HOSPITAL is a Hospital devoted to the medical and surgical treatment of infants.

The patients taken care of in the Hospital wards are under two years of age. The admission of patients is not confined to residents of Boston. Other children under twelve years of age are treated in the Out-patient Department.

Medical and surgical cases not requiring Hospital care are received for treatment daily from 9 to 11 A.M. (Sundays and holidays excepted). Cases for admission to the Hospital should be referred to the Out-patient Physician during these hours.

Emergency cases will be admitted at any time if there is an existing vacancy. Questions in regard to such cases, and other matters of information, may be referred by telephone to the Hospital at any time.

TELEPHONE—326 HAYMARKET.

A Post-graduate course of instruction for Nurses is given at the Hospital by the Hospital Staff.

The Hospital gives a course of instruction to Nursery Maids, in the care of infants.

Relatives are admitted to the wards on Sundays from ten to twelve o'clock.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

THE increase in our income this year is principally the result of an appeal made in June last in a circular letter, by which we hoped especially to increase the number of our annual subscribers. This appeal brought in the sum of $4,726.00, a part of which was given as donations for the year 1906, and a part of which came as annual subscriptions; that is, agreements to pay a certain sum yearly. Some of these yearly payments are to extend over a period of ten years and some over shorter periods.

We have received this year from William Augustus Rust and Alexander F. Wadsworth, executors of the estate of Mrs. Nancy E. Rust, the sum of $1000, to be invested as the Frank Davison Rust Memorial Fund, and the income only used. We understand that at a later date this Fund will be increased to $3000.

We also note a bequest under the will of the late Charles Merriam of $1000, which has not yet been received.

We also received an additional $500 for the A. B. Fund from our anonymous friend A. B.

The Treasurer also has to record receipt of the sum of $850, collected by a friend of the Hospital who has asked that her name be not published. This sum was given for "running expenses of the new Thomas Morgan Rotch Jr. Memorial Hospital for Infants," to be "applied as part of the income for the first year or towards a fund from which the income can be derived." This money, therefore, is not available for use until the new Hospital is built. The generous donors are as follows:—

Mr. F. W. Hunnewell	-	-	-	$500
Mr. H. S. Grew	-	-	-	100
Mr. T. Jefferson Coolidge	-	-	-	100
Mr. William S. Dexter	-	-	-	100
Mr. W. Amory Gardner	-	-	-	50

The Treasurer is also pleased to state that the Trustees of the Mastin Mortgage Securities, which securities have been held so long by the Hospital as a part of the Gifford Fund, have been successful in getting for the holders par for their stock. Besides this, we received in back interest on this investment $240, which is properly credited to the income of the Gifford Fund. It is possible a further small amount may be received on account of this investment.

N. S. BARTLETT,
Treasurer.

REPORT OF MEDICAL DIRECTOR.

DURING the past year the hospital has shown its usual growth in the number of patients treated and its importance as a centre to which thousands of infants and children from one of the poorest and most crowded districts of Boston gravitate in search of the sympathetic aid which they know is always ready for them. The total admission to the wards was 294, an increase of 27 on the previous year. In the Out-patient Department there have been presented 2,929 new patients, a gain of 218 in 1905. To really understand, however, the enormous work which is carried on in the out-patient department, where children of all ages up to twelve years are received, it should be known that while the total number of visits in 1904 was 11,637 and in 1905, 12,745, it reached, in 1906, 13,491, an increase of 696 on the previous year. It has been so strongly impressed on me in this past year how necessary is the continued existence of this out-patient department on the site where it now stands on Blossom Street, that I have strongly urged the Directors to arrange for a permanent modern building on the same land, but in place of the old buildings. I am convinced that it is not well to move our entire plant away from Blossom Street, where we are looked up to as a beneficent and humane benefactor by the swarming throngs of children and mothers who crowd through our narrow doorway into our ill-ventilated and narrow waiting room. If you could but see on some hot day in August the absolute insufficiency of room space which is provided for this crowd of anxious humanity, sick and pathetic, your hearts would be filled with a great desire to at least give these people air and sitting room while waiting to be taken into the still narrower quarters where our devoted physicians, surgeons and nurses receive and care for them. If you could see how often, day after day, there is no room to get through our door, and how the door steps and even the sidewalk are filled with these patient waiters, each meekly taking their turn, you would wonder why these people do not go just across the street and enter the broad doorways and the large well-ventilated airy rooms of the great out-patient department of the Massachusetts General Hospital. I will tell you why, and then you will not wonder, but will agree with me that they are sensible, far-seeing people who appreciate where best their interests lie.

In the great hospital, equipped as well as any in the world, they are massed in with people of all ages and lose their especial identity. In our small, poorly-equipped hospital they are treated as individuals and know that our whole staff are devoting all their time to children. They are met with kind words and sympathetic ears. Our Superintendent of Nurses, Miss Story, has placed at their command her trained graduate nurses—neat, skilful, ready with deft hand and pleasant voice to help the mother soothe her sick child as it is brought before the different members of an admirable staff.

They meet the well known and kindly face of our apothecary, Miss Wilbur, and they see the ever pervading and reassuring personality of our long serving assistant secretary, Miss Aubin, whose preëminence in systematic detail has made the hospital respected and loved. This is why the poor cluster to our narrow doorway.

My idea and desire is to sell what land we do not need, and, reserving ample space, to build up with the proceeds of our sale a new and commodious out-patient building where the poor in addition to humane treatment may breathe in the air of a large and well ventilated waiting room, with ample provision above for staff and nurses.

In this building also we can have all the hospital laundry done, a possibility which the ladies of the corporation will surely appreciate.

The locality on Blossom Street is, however, so poor a one for the treatment of the babies in our wards, especially in summer, that we have for this reason to close the hospital during July, August and September. We shall, therefore, for our ward patients erect the new memorial hospital in the midst of the fresh air and pleasant surroundings of the land by the Harvard Medical School.

Such are our aspirations, and I feel that it will not be long before they are fulfilled. We are now practically only waiting to be assured that we have sufficient yearly income to meet the expenses of the whole plant.

The fund for building the Memorial Hospital is now almost sufficient for its purpose, and amounts to a little over $75,000, which is held on deposit with Messrs. Kidder, Peabody & Co., at 5% interest. The land has already been paid for.

Another subject which your medical director has thought wise to bring before and recommend to the Board of Directors is that they should request the Corporation to change its name to that of the "Infants Hospital." There are many reasons why I believe this to be for the best good of the plant as a whole, and I hope that you all will agree with me.

The Directors offer their thanks to those who have devoted their time to the annual fair of 1906, and with a small surplus in their treasury in January 1907, hope to omit the fair this year, and, they trust, in the future. The Directors acknowledge the aid given by the Ladies' Aid Society, and present their thanks to the Hospital Staff for their good work.

It is with sincere regret that I have to record the deaths of two members of the Corporation:—Mr. Charles Merriam and Mrs. Robert C. Hooper. Mrs. Hooper has for many years given us active aid and made herself beloved by all who met her in connection with the Hospital work. Her great tact and the notable sweetness of her disposition helped us at a time when we needed such help greatly, and we shall always remember her as a benefactress and friend of the Hospital.

I also wish to express my regret for the loss of one of our nurse maids, Miss Catherine Leichman, who was attacked with appendicitis while on duty, and died at the Massachusetts General Hospital.

Ten nurses took the graduate course, and eight nursery maids completed their course.

After a most successful year's service as Superintendent of Nurses, Miss Fairbrother resigned in September. Her place has since been filled by Miss Marion Story, who has entered upon her work with such honest zeal and enthusiasm that we cannot but feel that she will be a worthy successor of her admirable predecessors.

I should also like to present to the members of the Corporation and to those who are interested in reading this report the following appeals from Mrs. Winthrop Sargent and Mr. N. S. Bartlett.

THOMAS MORGAN ROTCH,
Medical Director.

TO THE CORPORATION OF THE INFANTS' HOSPITAL:—

As Chairman of the Hospital Committee of Ladies, who thoroughly understand and believe in the work of this Hospital, I should like to bring to the attention of the Corporation, and through them to the public, certain points in connection with the great work of this Hospital.

The Hospital has established for itself a position in the community held by no other institution, in that it devotes itself entirely to babies, a class of patients which by virtue of their tender age cannot be cared for properly without great expense in regard to washing, nursing and food. If twenty sick babies are to be taken care of in a sanitary way, this means five thousand more articles a week for the laundry over and above the washing needed for the same number of older children and adults. From two to three times as many nurses are needed for these infants as are required for older children and adults. The proper supply and preparation of food for infants is far more expensive than that required for children and adults.

A special hospital for the sick babies of the poor, therefore, becomes a public necessity, and should be supported by the public, for surely to save the lives of these young infants means to save life where it especially ought to be saved. This Hospital is not of local value only, since it provides free beds for poor babies from all parts of New England. If this were better understood the people living outside of Boston, realizing that the babies in their districts could be taken to this Hospital, would, I know, gladly countenance and aid such a manifestly important charity.

In this Hospital a very important work is carried on in the most admirable way, and one which connects itself closely with the practical details of every household where there are babies—namely, a long-established and successful training school for graduate teaching, given to those nurses who have already taken their diplomas in other hospitals, and who desire to secure this special and more advanced training. There is also a training school for nursery maids, where young women between eighteen and thirty years of age, who have been examined by a physician and found to be healthy and strong and fitted for this work, are trained to be obedient, skilful, neat servants, fitted to become good nursery maids for well babies, and to serve under the trained graduate nurse when the baby is ill. This school has a long waiting list, and these nursery maids are highly appreciated by the public and are much sought after.

In company with a large number of ladies, many of them mothers, deeply interested in the success of this admirable work, I appeal to all who are interested in the welfare of babies to aid the Directors of the Infants' Hospital to perfect this work, which is not duplicated anywhere in New England, by obtaining for them a sufficient number of annual subscriptions to maintain the projected new Hospital in the best manner.

MRS. WINTHROP SARGENT,
Chairman of the Hospital Committee of Ladies.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE INFANTS' HOSPITAL :—

The present Blossom Street Hospital buildings are very old, very inconvenient, lacking in modern conveniences, not to say necessities; in short, quite unfit for the purposes for which they are being used.

A fund has been raised for the building of a new Hospital, and this money is in the hands of Trustees. Land for the new Hospital has been purchased of Harvard University, close to the new buildings of the Harvard Medical School. The funds in the hands of the Trustees to be devoted to the building of the new Hospital, the land having already been paid for, amounts to about $75,000.

We hope that we shall soon be in a position to go on with the building of the Hospital, and believe there would be little or no delay if we could see our way as regards assured income to carry on the new Hospital when completed.

One of the most important parts of the work of the present Hospital is its Out-patient Department, where hundreds of patients are treated each year. It would be cruelty to the poor of the northern and western parts of our city to have the Out-patient Department abandoned or moved far away, say to where our new Hospital is to be built. A plan now proposed, which we trust will be carried out, is to continue an Out-patient Department on Blossom Street in connection with the new Hospital at the other end of the city. To accomplish this it is proposed to sell a part of our real estate on Blossom Street, and with the proceeds (which, we hope, will be nearly enough for our purpose) to erect a new and convenient building on the old site; this to take the place of the old and unfit quarters now in use for our out-patients.

This, briefly, is the plan for the future. In the meantime the work is going on at the old Hospital on Blossom Street, and what we want is a larger assured income for the present needs and a still larger assured income for our future needs. We made an appeal this last summer for annual subscribers, which was generously responded to, but we still need more income. We must now make another appeal for more money. What we want are more annual subscribers, but help of any kind will be most gratefully received.

Those who are interested and would like to visit the old Hospital will be welcomed, and every facility given them to examine into this charity. Any inquiries will be answered by addressing the Treasurer at the Hospital, where subscriptions or donations may also be forwarded.

NELSON S. BARTLETT,

Treasurer.

BOSTON.

Press of David Clapp & Son.

THE INFANTS' HOSPITAL is a Hospital devoted to the medical and surgical treatment of infants.

The patients taken care of in the Hospital wards are under two years of age. The admission of patients is not confined to residents of Boston. Other children under twelve years of age are treated in the Out-patient Department.

Medical and surgical cases not requiring Hospital care are received for treatment daily from 9 to 11 A.M. (Sundays and holidays excepted). Cases for admission to the Hospital should be referred to the Out-patient Physician during these hours.

Emergency cases will be admitted at any time if there is an existing vacancy. Questions in regard to such cases, and other matters of information, may be referred by telephone to the Hospital at any time.

TELEPHONE—326 HAYMARKET.

A Post-graduate course of instruction for Nurses is given at the Hospital by the Hospital Staff.

The Hospital gives a course of instruction to Nursery Maids, in the care of infants.

Relatives are admitted to the wards on Sundays from ten to twelve o'clock.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

THE year 1907 has, from a financial point of view, been a fortunate one for the Hospital. Besides a bequest of $10,000 under the will of Mrs. Sarah E. Potter, we have received, as one of Mrs. Potter's residuary legatees, the additional sum of $29,315.64, making a total of nearly $40,000 received under Mrs. Potter's will. About two-thirds of this amount was paid over by her executors in the shape of securities, but as these securities were generally of a high class, and because of the abnormally depressed condition of the stock market were taken at very low valuations, it is safe to say that in a time of normal conditions, Mrs. Potter's gift to the Hospital would exceed $40,000.

The Hospital also received from Mrs. Potter's executors on account of income, the sum of $1,016.16.

The bequest of $1000 under the will of the late Charles Merriam has also been paid to us.

While these bequests will make a substantial increase in our income (this increase will be perhaps $1,600), it will still be necessary to do what we can to increase the number of our annual subscribers, and to procure donations and gifts to carry on the work. And in this connection the Treasurer begs to call attention to the fact that the income for the year 1907 from sources as shown in the report were insufficient to meet our expenses. The deficiency was, however, made good from the balance of income on hand January 1, 1907.

By a payment from the Permanent Fund of $2500, the last of the mortgage indebtedness on the Seabury Place property has been cancelled, and the Hospital is now free of debt.

N. S. BARTLETT.

Treasurer.

REPORT OF MEDICAL DIRECTOR.

INSTEAD of the discouraging reports of which have had to be made to the Corporation in the past, in connection with the history of the Hospital, which usually has been that of pressing need of funds to prevent it from entering upon a new year with its debts unpaid, I am happy to be able to report that I have nothing to record but prosperity and encouragement, in the belief that the Hospital is rapidly being placed on a sound footing.

We are entering upon a new year with a considerable surplus, as shown by our Treasurer's account. This condition has been largely brought about by the exertions of both the men and women who have increased our annual subscriptions and have held a number of entertainments in behalf of the Hospital. We wish to thank them and, as representing the Board of Directors, I wish to assure them that what they have done is greatly appreciated.

The Directors believe that the chief source of income for running expenses should, until sufficient endowment is obtained, be derived from annual subscriptions. The Directors hope that all who are interested in the hospital will make a special effort, year by year, to increase these annual subscriptions, for upon this increase of income depends the future of the Hospital so far as building the new Hospital is concerned. In laying so much stress on the subject of annual subscriptions they do not mean in any way to give the impression that as many entertainments as possible should not be given during the year. Even very small entertainments are desirable, since it is not only the money which is received from these entertainments, however small or large it may be, which is of use in carrying on the expenses of the Hospital, but far beyond this is the bringing of the Hospital before the notice of the public as many times as possible during the year. In this way the Hospital is likely to be mentioned in philanthropists' wills and also will be more likely to receive often much larger sums than the entertainments bring to the Hospital treasury.

During the year special arrangements have been made with the Managers of the Faulkner Hospital to supply the Infants' Hospital with a certain number of trained nurses. The arrangement is that the nurses at the Faulkner Hospital should complete their course of instruction at the hospital and shall then, before receiving their diplomas, take a course at the Infants' Hospital.

The training School for Nursery Maids is becoming more popular, and we still have many inquiries which cannot be satisfied and a long waiting list for this class of nurses.

It is possible that during the coming summer the Directors may decide that it is wise to treat a certain number of sick babies in tents on the ground belonging to the Hospital in close juxtaposition to the Medical School buildings.

As the Infants' Hospital is unable to open its wards in the summer, these tents will, we think, be of infinite service to the sick babies in the poorer districts.

It is with the greatest regret that I have to mention the death of one of the members of our Corporation, Stephen Van Rensselaer Thayer.

In the autumn our Director of Nurses, Miss Marian Story, after having served most faithfully in her care of the institution, was forced to resign on account of serious illness. The Directors wish to express to her and to her family their appreciation of the delicacy and refinement which she brought to her work in the hospital, and to offer their sincere wishes for her eventual recovery. Miss Story's place is now filled by Miss Farquhar, whose reputation for organization and as a disciplinarian in a number of other institutions, ensures us that the Infants' Hospital has obtained the aid of one whose work cannot but be satisfactory.

The Directors offer their sincere thanks to the physicians and surgeons connected with the hospital. Their work has been most excellent, and their self-denial in carrying on such a large work under such adverse circumstances is most praiseworthy.

Miss Helen W. Aubin, our Assistant Secretary, it is needless to say, has done all that she undertook to do in past years, and is of the greatest aid, from her long experience with our hospital affairs, in making the Hospital popular, both to the laity and to the physicians who so frequently come to see what is being done for sick infants.

The Directors trust that in another year the Hospital will have received so much aid from its already numerous admirers that they will be able to state that some definite decision has been made as to the building of the Hospital next to the Medical School, and the new Out-Patient Department on the site of the present building.

THOMAS MORGAN ROTCH,
Medical Director.

Having been appointed an Auditing Committee at the Annual Meeting of the Infants Hospital Corporation on January 31, 1908, we have had the accounts audited by Charles F. Kellogg, Public Accountant, and have examined and verified the Bonds, Stocks and Mortgages in the hands of the Treasurer and found them correct.

WILLIAM ROTCH, }
 REGINALD H. HOWE, } Auditing Committee.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

THE Treasurer has to report that in October of last year the Hospital bank account was so exhausted that the question presented itself as to whether we must dispose of some of our investments or perhaps borrow money to meet our expenses. We had but a few hundred dollars on hand, and had expended all our income, and a considerable sum, in fact the larger part of the money put aside for investment in the Permanent Fund.

At this juncture in our affairs, Mr. George A. Draper generously came to our assistance, as shown in the accompanying report.

The Treasurer would again emphasize the necessity of increasing our list of annual subscribers.

As regards the investments of the Hospital and the income derived therefrom, a careful statement has been prepared by Mr. William Rotch of our auditing committee, which shows the total face value of our securities to be $77,650, with a market value of approximately $88,572. From these investments we receive, say $3,600 per annum, this being a return of slightly over 4 per cent. on the market value as stated above.

The foregoing has of course nothing to do with the Building Fund, now in the hands of the Building Committee.

The Treasurer is pleased to state that under the will of the late Caleb Chase, we are a legatee for the sum of $5000.

N. S. BARTLETT,
Treasurer.

REPORT OF MEDICAL DIRECTOR.

ALTHOUGH the year 1908 has not been successful from a financial point of view, yet there has happened in it much which is of a most encouraging nature for the future prospects of the Hospital.

A new interest and one which will probably be a lasting one sprung up during the year, and has grown month by month as the year went on. The public has awakened to the fact that the work of the Infants Hospital is one which is unique, that it is not duplicated by any other institution in New England, and that after its twenty-seven years of continually increasing work it has become established as an entity of importance and necessity in the community.

It is fairly well recognized that the time has come when the Hospital should be put on its feet financially, and that to join its list of annual subscribers is something which is almost a duty of all good citizens.

The city, so liberal in many other respects, does not make special provision for the most helpless and the most needy of its people. The care of poor sick infants is neglected to an extreme which it is difficult to explain, but is a very evident fact.

It seems hardly conceivable that under these circumstances the eventual accomplishment of raising funds for yearly income can be anything but successful. If all the friends of the helpless infants of our State would join in asking their friends to subscribe even one dollar annually for the Hospital income, there is not much doubt but that sufficient income would be raised to justify the Directors in building the new Memorial Hospital at once. The present Hospital building on Blossom Street cannot stand for many years longer, it is almost tottèring now with age, and last summer some of the floors had to be braced by beams below; something must soon be done or the only institution of its kind in New England will cease to exist. It will be now as it has always been the policy of the Directors even in poor and we may say disgracefully poor quarters to carry out all the most modern details connected with the care of infants in the best way and based on the highest standards. They are therefore about to establish in connection with the Women's Municipal League, a system of visiting the babies in their homes after they have left the Hospital. This will be done by a trained nurse whose salary will be paid for the first year by the League, who hope that a sufficient annual fund can in a year be raised to enable the Hospital to carry on this very important work itself. About $2,000 a year will cover the expenses of the nurse, and the proper feeding of the babies in their homes. Subscriptions for this fund can be forwarded to Mrs. William Lowell Putnam for the Infants Social Service) 49 Beacon Street, Boston. At the request of Mrs. Putnam I have inserted in my report the following statement explanatory of this new and much needed work :

“The Women’s Municipal League in connection with the Infants Hospital is starting an experiment in social service for infants,—its object being not only to try to prevent the present high rate of infant mortality, but to raise the standard of health of the men and women of the future, by improving that of the babies of to-day. For this purpose there will be a clinic for both the well and the sick babies, and the mothers will be visited and given personal instruction in their homes. The League will be very grateful for any funds subscribed for this purpose.”

The arrangement made with the Faulkner Hospital, Jamaica Plain, to supply two nurses each term has proved a success and will be continued the coming year.

The Post-Graduate Course for Nurses and the Training School for Nursery Maids have been even more successful than in former years.

The Directors offer their grateful thanks for the efficient service to the Hospital Medical and Surgical officers, to Miss Helen W. Aubin the Assistant Secretary, to Miss Farquhar the Hospital Superintendent, and to Miss Austin the Head Nurse.

A number of entertainments have been given by the Committee on Ways and Means. The Directors appreciate all that they have done and offer to them and to the Ladies’ Aid Society their gratitude; they also wish to thank the House Committee and the Visitors to the Wards for their kindly interest and help.

THE INFANTS' HOSPITAL is a Hospital devoted to the medical and surgical treatment of infants.

The patients taken care of in the Hospital wards are under two years of age. The admission of patients is not confined to residents of Boston. Other children under twelve years of age are treated in the Out-patient Department.

Medical and surgical cases not requiring Hospital care are received for treatment daily from 9 to 11 A. M. (Sundays and holidays excepted). Cases for admission to the Hospital should be referred to the Out-patient Physician during these hours.

Emergency cases will be admitted at any time if there is an existing vacancy. Questions in regard to such cases, and other matters of information, may be referred by telephone to the Hospital at any time.

TELEPHONE—326 HAYMARKET.

A Post-graduate course of instruction for Nurses is given at the Hospital by the Hospital Staff.

The Hospital gives a course of instruction to Nursery Maids, in the care of infants.

Relatives are admitted to the wards on Sundays from ten to twelve o'clock.

REPORT OF THE MEDICAL DIRECTOR.

In presenting the report for the year 1909 the Medical Director feels that the work of the Hospital is so well known and the medical interests connected with it so well understood, that it is hardly worth the while to repeat what has so often been said in previous reports.

The work of the Hospital is primarily to receive and treat medical diseases occurring in human beings in the first two years of life. This work is not duplicated in its completeness of instruction to physicians, nurses and nursery maids anywhere else in New England, and yet this by no means represents an absence of the necessity of such work being carried on or that the small quarters which our present Hospital provides for the work is sufficient. On the contrary, what it does represent is the existence of an anomaly which the people of New England and especially of Boston in no way recognize, and therefore apparently make no effort to remove from our midst.

It is certainly anomalous that while the preservation of the early life of human beings is a manifest necessity, both from a humanitarian and an utilitarian point of view, no organized or concentrated effort has been made in this community to provide means for carrying out this preservation. It is the duty of every community to care for its young as well as for its old, and there are many instances throughout the country, especially in the larger cities, of finely equipped hospitals devoted to infants. It is also especially significant that in all these different hospitals the physicians and nurses speak of a supposed completely equipped hospital in Boston, where the first Infants' Hospital was opened. It is true that the first hospital devoted entirely to babies was opened in Boston in January, 1881, nearly thirty years ago, and that this institution was the pioneer in investigations relating to early life. The present Hospital building is sadly inadequate for the increasing work, it is old and out of repair, the wards are small, and during the summer months owing to the surroundings which are congested, we are obliged to close the wards; under these circumstances it is evident that something must be done and done at once.

About $40,000 or $50,000 more are needed to put up the new Memorial building on the ground which has been bought by the Trustees of a fund given for this purpose, and the Trustees have decided to put up the outside of the building, and the work will be begun in March. It is hoped when there is something tangible and something which will represent the money which has been given for the new Hospital, that friends will come forward and help finish the building. The memorial building should represent something more than a mere hospital, there are certain classes in the community who take very little interest in sick babies, but who are deeply interested in all that pertains to early life whether in the kindergarten or schools or mills; there are others who are interested in the study and adaptation of the various questions relating to the feeding and care of the young in health.

With a view to satisfying the necessity for establishing some educational centre where all questions relating to early life can be studied and given out to the public, the Trustees have decided to make this Memorial building such an educational centre. There is to be in it a library devoted entirely to information on all subjects relating to babies, there is also to be a model milk laboratory, a room especially devoted to the care of premature infants, a model nursery, a special research laboratory, and a lecture room furnished with all the modern apparatus for teaching and investigation.

The plans for the entire building, inside and out, equipped for the above purposes having been carefully studied, are now in the architect's hands, and we trust that the balance needed to complete the building will be forthcoming when we are ready to finish the interior.

It is with sincere regret that we announce the deaths of three members of the Corporation during the past year, Rev. Edward Everett Hale, Mr. Causten Browne, and Mrs. Charles Head. Mr. Browne had been a member ever since the year 1884, Dr. Hale was elected in 1885, and Mrs. Head in 1886. Mrs. Head was one of the first members of the Ladies' Aid Society, and has always been a kind friend to the Hospital.

The Directors wish to express their appreciation of the efforts of the ladies who have just made such a success of the Christmas sale under the direction of Mrs. William B. Wheelwright, and until the income of the Hospital is larger the Directors have decided to have regularly each year a sale at Christmastime and a fair before Easter.

The Directors offer their sincere thanks to the members of the Medical and Surgical Staff for their efficient service, also for their cordial co-operation and helpful work to the Ladies' Aid Society, the House Committee, the Visitors in the Wards and the Committee on Ways and Means.

The Directors recognize the great difficulties which arise in the administration of the Hospital through the cramped quarters and the lack of proper equipment; they therefore feel that especial thanks and recognition of their difficult work so well performed are due to Miss Aubin and Miss Farquhar.

Dr. William P. Lucas, Medical Director of the Milk Fund, makes the following statement regarding that work:

Of all the many helpful agencies which are carried on in connection with the Out-patient Department, there is none perhaps more far-reaching in its results than the work done by the Milk Fund. This Fund supplies modified milk to babies from poor homes, not only during the hot weather but to a continually increasing extent throughout the entire year. This Fund has a wide field of usefulness as it is the only means that the Out-patient Department of this Hospital, as well as that of the Children's Hospital, has of providing, free of charge, the best modified milk for sick babies and for the difficult feeding cases which could not live without this aid. There is an urgent demand, felt in all our Infant clinics, for the logical extension of the activities of this Fund in the securing of a visiting nurse to increase the efficiency of the work. This is greatly to be desired in the summer months when so many very sick babies are given the benefit of this Fund. These babies are given the best milk possible, but it is often imperative that further supervision be carried into the homes where there is so often absolute ignorance of how to care for a sick baby, or how to keep the milk from contamination after its delivery.

During the past year this Fund has been able to supply milk to over 300 sick babies, and to assist many others that were difficult to feed without the assistance of the modified milk supplied by this Fund. A very large proportion of the parents are willing to pay in part for the milk and the money so collected has been used for the further extension of the work. Funds for this work have been raised by liberal subscriptions in response to appeals sent out by the Trustees of the Milk Fund, and it is hoped that its patrons will continue to support its work by increased giving and by interesting others to help this Fund to meet the larger opportunities for work.

INCORPORATED JANUARY 19, 1881.

TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

JANUARY 1, 1910, to JANUARY 1, 1911.

THE INFANTS' HOSPITAL is a Hospital devoted to the medical and surgical treatment of infants.

The patients taken care of in the Hospital wards are under two years of age. The admission of patients is not confined to residents of Boston. Other children under twelve years of age are treated in the Out-patient Department.

Medical and surgical cases not requiring Hospital care are received for treatment daily from 9 to 11 A. M. (Sundays and holidays excepted). Cases for admission to the Hospital should be referred to the Out-patient Physician during these hours.

Emergency cases will be admitted at any time if there is an existing vacancy. Questions in regard to such cases, and other matters of information, may be referred by telephone to the Hospital at any time.

TELEPHONE—326 HAYMARKET.

A Post-graduate course of instruction for Nurses is given at the Hospital by the Hospital Staff.

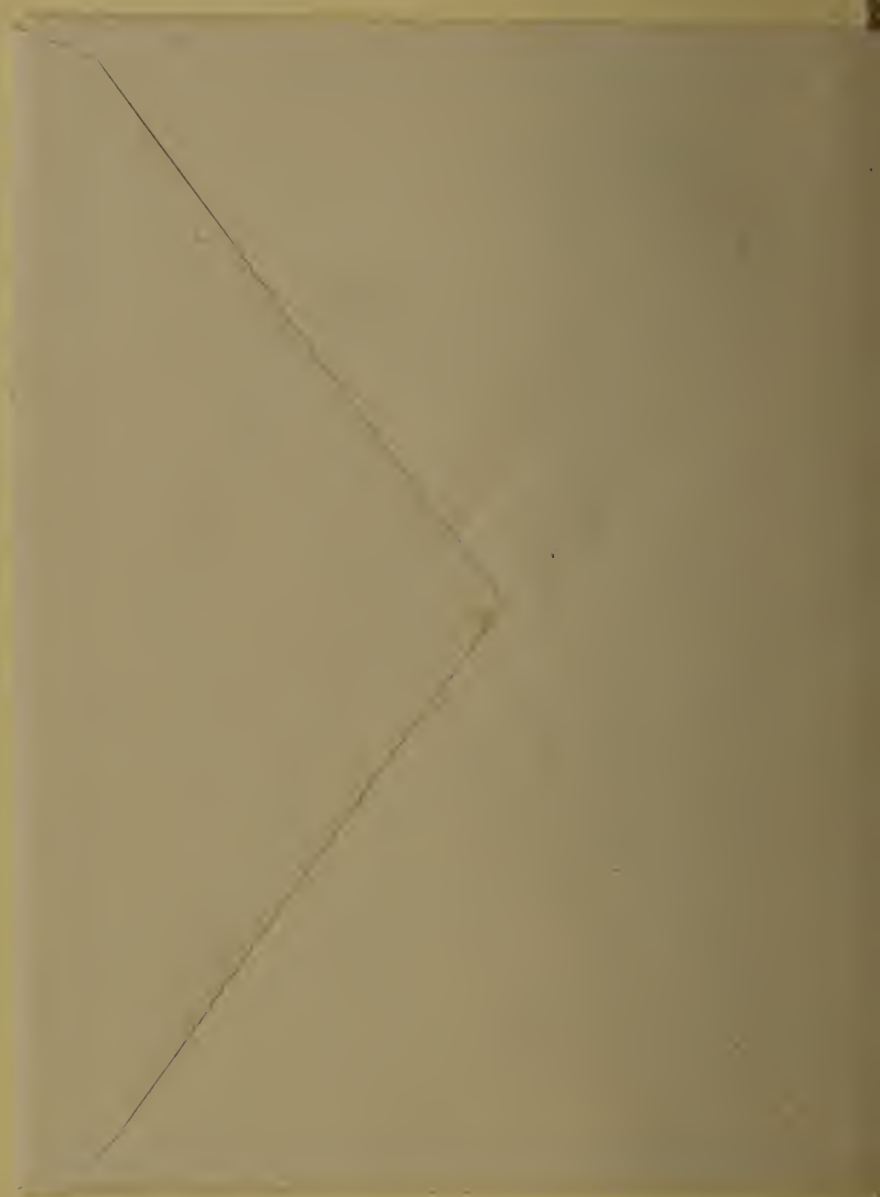

The Hospital gives a course of instruction to Nursery Maids, in the care of infants.

Relatives are admitted to the wards on Sundays from ten to twelve o'clock.

REPORT OF THE MEDICAL DIRECTOR.

Another year has gone by and the Hospital, still in its old, crowded, ill-equipped quarters, is carrying on its certainly wonderful work, considering the very unfavorable surroundings from which this work has emanated. It should be noted, explained to the corporation, and impressed upon the public, that the time is coming when the present hospital buildings will have to be evacuated on account of a stage having been reached when repairs will be impossible. The life-saving work carried on in these old buildings has far outgrown the Hospital capacity, and if the Infants' Hospital is to continue to exist and to retain the important place which it has held among public charities for so many years, renewed efforts should be made by its friends, to aid in raising funds for its removal to a location better adapted to the prolongation of its life.

Such strong pressure has been brought to bear upon the Trustees of the Memorial Fund by the donors and others interested in the Hospital, to begin the Hospital at once, that the Trustees have decided to erect the outside of the building. This decision has been ratified by the Directors of the Hospital, and the opinion seems to prevail that this action is wise and that the funds for completing the Hospital will be forthcoming later. The ground has been broken for the new building, and closely following this starting of the Hospital the first one thousand dollars, towards increasing the building fund, has been received.

During the past year ten nurses have received diplomas from the post-graduate course. An opportunity is given in the medical and surgical departments for nurses, who have already been graduated from general hospitals, to receive instruction and to become experienced in the care of sick infants and children. Twenty lectures are given by the physicians and surgeons of the staff to the nurses each term. Thirteen nursery maids have finished their course of training in the care of well babies. These maids are evidently highly appreciated by the public, as the demand is greater than the supply. In the new Hospital provision will be made for the accommodation of a much larger number of nursery maids than is possible in the small quarters of the present building.

The number of infants admitted to the Hospital wards during the year 1910 was 289, while the total number of visits to the Out-Patient Department amounted to 14,969, being 800 more than occurred in 1909.

While the care and relief of suffering of the poor must always be the primary object in our Hospital management, yet it should be noted that this small Hospital is doing a very large work in the teaching of physicians and medical students, and ill equipped as it is, it has made a great reputation for itself in regard to advancing all questions connected with early life.

A special clinic is held in the Hospital for the instruction of mothers in the simple principles of hygiene, the babies of these mothers having already been in the Hospital wards. They are instructed to bring their babies as often as once in two weeks to be looked over by the physician in charge, and advice is given to them as to the best means of keeping them well.

A great work is carried on throughout the year, but mostly in the summer, in connection with the children who are brought to the Out-Patient Department. This work, with its far-reaching results, is accomplished by means of what is called the Milk Fund. Through this fund the best milk, modified according to the needs of the especial child, is provided free of cost to all those who are found worthy of this charity. It is to be noted, however, that almost universally the parents are able and willing to pay a small price for this food. In addition to providing this milk, the efficiency of the treatment has been greatly increased by the employment of a skilled, trained visiting nurse. This nurse supervises the care of the milk after it has been received in the homes, where there is often absolute ignorance of how to care for a sick baby. The nurse also instructs the mothers in the general hygiene which should be carried out in their homes in connection with the care of sick babies, and there is no question but that many lives are saved which would otherwise be sacrificed to conditions which can be obviated by the knowledge brought to bear upon them by the nurse. The funds for this work come from liberal subscribers in response to appeals sent out by the Trustees of the Milk Fund. It is hoped that its patrons by explaining to their friends, the new portion of this work represented by the nurse's supervision, may interest others to help by giving to the Fund, and thus provide larger opportunities for this important work.

The Directors wish to recognize especially what has been done by the ladies in connection with the annual fair, and to present their thanks and appreciation of the arduous work which they have so devotedly done, under the able direction of Mrs. Charles Harrington. The Directors also wish to thank the committee of ladies who, under the direction of Mrs. William B. Wheelwright, conducted the Christmas sale. The Directors offer their sincere thanks to the members of the Medical and Surgical Staff for their efficient services, also for the cordial co-operation and helpful work of the Ladies' Aid Society, the Hospital Committee, the Visitors to the Wards, and of the Committee on Ways and Means. The difficulties arising from the administration of the Hospital are so great that the Directors feel that especial thanks for and appreciation of their difficult work are due to Miss Aubin, Assistant Secretary, and to Miss Farquhar, Hospital Superintendent.

The following friends, who have helped us by their kindly interest and gifts, have died during the past year: Mrs. H. A. Rice, Mrs. F. C. Wilson, Henry S. Grew, and Charles Thorndike.

ON MAY 24, 1911

BY PRESIDENT A. LAWRENCE LOWELL
DR. J. COLLINS WARREN
RT. REV. WILLIAM LAWRENCE
AND DR. CHARLES W. ELIOT

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

ON the 24th of May, 1911, a meeting was held at the Harvard Medical School, in behalf of a new hospital building for infants, then undergoing construction. Of such great interest and value were the addresses made that it is deemed advisable to preserve them, and for this purpose this report is published. As a preface to the report, a word of explanation might not be out of place.

More than ten years ago a fund was subscribed by generous and charitable persons for the purpose of erecting and maintaining an adequate and suitable hospital for the care of infants. In 1904 a part of the fund was used to purchase from Harvard College a lot of land near the Harvard Medical School, the most practical and logical situation for an institution of this character.

A building adapted to the surroundings, modern and adequate in every respect, was planned by the architects, Messrs. Shepley, Rutan & Coolidge, after consultation with eminent medical authorities, but it was found that the cost would be far in excess of the sum subscribed. For this reason construction was postponed. After long and earnest consideration, however, it was decided to erect so much of the building as the fund on hand would permit, with the hope that the generous public, when it appreciated the importance of the work undertaken, would subscribe sufficient funds to complete the hospital. That this hospital building is a necessity, and that it should be completed and maintained, was earnestly set forth in the addresses by the speakers at the meeting of May 24th; and for the reasons why it is a necessity and why it should be completed and maintained, the reader is respectfully referred to the report of these addresses.

The Infants' Hospital, a charitable corporation organized in 1881, which, by its worthy and important work in ill-adapted and inadequate quarters on Blossom Street, has proved its right to a new home, will occupy the building when finished. Here the work of this invaluable institution, aided by the modern facilities of the new plant, and by the close association and coöperation of the Medical School and the other hospitals in the vicinity, can be carried on with far greater success. Here, also, the little patients can be cared for during the hot summer months—an impossibility in the present quarters.

As a result of the meeting of May 24th, together with circulars sent to a large number of persons, subscriptions towards the fund for the new building, and purposes connected therewith, have been received, amounting on October 15, 1911, to $27,500. These generous contributions together with the original fund will pay for the work already ordered. The outside walls and roof have been completed, the rough flooring has been laid, the partitions, rough plumbing, heating, and electrical work are now being installed. The remaining funds, however, are not sufficient to justify further contracts, and unless donations are received in the near future, the work must temporarily cease. This, of course, will mean greater expense. In order to complete the building as now planned, an additional sum of $100,000 is needed. Of this sum $5000 has already been subscribed, on condition that the balance is paid in by June, 1912. A very serious and determined effort is being made to obtain subscriptions, and all persons are earnestly requested to send in donations to Messrs. Kidder, Peabody & Company, Temporary Treasurers, 115 Devonshire Street, Boston.

Persons desiring to subscribe towards any specific portion of the new building, with a view to having such portion designated as a memorial, or persons wishing to have their donations held in any special manner, as part of the endowment fund, may receive further information by communicating with the Secretary, Henry W. Palmer, 709 Exchange Building.

PRESIDENT A. LAWRENCE LOWELL of Harvard University, who presided at this meeting, spoke as follows:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: We come here in the interest of the new building of the Infants' Hospital, and we come with a faith that a close association of that building with the Medical School is of mutual benefit. We believe that, because we believe that the results to be attained are of the utmost value not only to the children who are coming to the hospital now, but also to the children who will come there in future years. In other words, the hospital being built for the poor children, the sick children, of the community, it is our duty to manage it not only to relieve the children who are now sick, but so as to perfect the knowledge of children's diseases in order that we may do even more for the children of future generations.

This we believe can be brought about in no way so well as by a close connection with this Medical School; by having the children near all the knowledge that this school contains, with the laboratories of this school at the disposal of the hospital. This also gives the professors chance to study diseases, and to learn more about them.

Now the ground for the hospital has been purchased, the outside walls have been erected, but the hospital is not completed, and its equipment needs still to be furnished before it can be used. We have made a start, the best possible start, but only a start, and not a finish.

I will now ask DR. J. COLLINS WARREN to tell us about the conditions of this hospital.

ADDRESS BY DR. WARREN

DR. WARREN'S ADDRESS

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: It is a great pleasure to me to be able to respond to the call made in behalf of the Infants' Hospital, for this occasion has to me a special significance, marking as it does the beginning of the final consummation of the plan we have had in mind since the first steps were taken to establish a great medical centre in this city; for this is the first of the group of hospitals to be erected around the Medical School, and to be intimately associated with it and its work. Therefore it gives us renewed hope to feel that this great medical enterprise will be carried out successfully along the lines originally planned.

But this hospital has special features of interest of its own which demand our attention to-day, for it differs from nearly all other hospitals in the peculiar character of its work. I regard it, therefore, as a feature of special interest in the hospital group, for it is to be a place not only where infants under two years of age are to be nursed and cured, as are patients in other hospitals, but it is to be dedicated also to the study of the many delicate and serious problems in that period known as early life.

In this respect it resembles a new type of hospital now known as the "Observation Hospital," which, while, like other hospitals, it still continues to relieve human suffering, is so organized that it is able to concern itself at the same time with the study and causes of disease in an effort to advance materially the security of human life.

The work of the Department of Pediatrics of the Harvard Medical School has been of an exceptionally high grade, and its publications have been numerous and of such a character as to give it a national reputation. It has been tinged from the beginning with the sacred fire of originality, which has enabled it to accomplish valuable pioneer work and to point the direction of a new departure in the management and care of little children, both in this country and in Europe. Under the leadership of its distinguished head, Dr. Thomas Morgan Rotch, it has devoted itself to many intensely interesting problems, most conspicuous of which is the question of infant nutrition.

Those of us whose children have reached mature years can look back upon times in which the carrying of the small members of the family through those five years of danger was far more complicated than it is to-day. It should ever be remembered that it is due especially to the work of this department that the new order of things has been introduced. I am well aware that the opinion of young mothers is by no means unanimous as to the benefit of certain types of laboratory milk. But no one will question that the whole situation is on an entirely different plane from what it was a generation ago. It may be that our ideas (and it is hoped that it will be the case) will change materially from those that are now considered authoritative, but it must not be forgotten that the old régime has gone and that a better one is taking its place.

Another of the problems which has interested me especially is the study of the development of the child, more particularly with reference to the child labor question. This department has not been content with the old methods of ascertaining data from birth certificates, but has taken the child itself as the source of information as to its capacity for endurance. You are all doubtless aware that the growth of the child depends upon the growth of the long bones, and the growth of the long bones depends upon the activity of a thin line of tissue placed between the shaft and cap of the bone. The epiphyseal line is now the object of an intensive study. Familiarity with its appearance during its lesser or greater activity, by means of the Roentgen ray, enables the observer to recognize the difference between the growth of a vigorous child and a weakling. Observations of this character are now being worked out in various parts of the country and by special permission of the government at Annapolis, and are bringing about most valuable results.

I mention these two types of investigation as examples of the work being done by this department, both as to its far-reaching character and its importance upon the great problems for the protection of this tender period of life.

Some twenty years ago, when one of a committee to raise money for the rebuilding of the Boston Lying-in Hospital on McLean Street, I called to the attention of fathers and mothers of that period that if they gave help to establish such an institution as that upon a modern basis, it would not only care for the many poor and suffering women who are unable to care for themselves at the supreme moment, but would educate a staff of expert practitioners who would become a valuable asset to the city of Boston, and would serve as a protection to the new generation of mothers, both rich and poor, from the perils of childbirth. How successfully the plan which was then evolved has been carried out is a matter of public knowledge, to which I need hardly more than call your attention.

I feel that we are meeting with a somewhat similar situation here to-day, and if we build this temple, dedicated to infant life, and equip it with all the most modern machinery for fighting disease, we shall not only alleviate a vast amount of suffering, but we shall train a regiment of expert physicians who will be forever on guard to protect our children and grandchildren from the lurking foes of disease. And while the little babies are growing, the fathers and mothers can sleep peacefully in their beds, untortured by many of the anxieties which were the lot of the preceding generation.

PRESIDENT LOWELL: Dr. Warren has told us about the medical side. There is also another side. A number of years ago a highly respected gentleman in Boston refused to subscribe to an infant asylum on the ground that it preserved life that had better not be preserved. There is only one difficulty with this: it is that we have reached a moral stage when we must assume as the basis of our civilization the sacredness of human life. We cannot inquire to-day who is fit, and who is not fit, to live.

I will call upon BISHOP LAWRENCE to speak to us on the moral side of this matter.

BISHOP LAWRENCE'S ADDRESS

IT is interesting to note how rescue work in all moral and elevating lines catches people, catches them by their emotions; yet we all appreciate that educational work is far more important. This Infants' Hospital, while it strikes the note of rescue, strikes more strongly the note of education.

I want first, as the father of children, to bear my testimony to the value in my own family of the preparations of milk whose invention can be traced to this hospital or to those who have served here. When one thinks of the advantages that have come directly through the Infants' Hospital, its directors, physicians, and president, and then realizes that, while those mothers who can afford it are feeding their infants safely through the summer months, the Infants' Hospital is closed, our sympathies are aroused.

In many pictures of the Holy Family we see the Infant Jesus in the centre enshrouded with light, or with light breaking from the manger, illumining the Family, the strangers, and the cattle. True to fact, is it not? in this twentieth century, the infant the centre of the household. Whether it be the first, fourth, or seventh child, the whole family centre around the youngest, and if the little child is full of life and elasticity, every member responds, but if the baby is sick, the hearts of all sink. A working-man does poorer work all day because he left the baby ailing. And the children as they return from school feel it: their mother cannot give them the attention they ought to have; they lose a certain amount of mothering because the baby is sick, —the baby is the centre. Therefore, anything that goes towards the health, the upbuilding, and the happiness of the baby, goes towards the strength of the whole family. We want to keep this clearly in mind, so that when we think of the Infants' Hospital we shall think at the same time of twenty, fifty, or one hundred families, each a bit stronger because in the hospital or through the skill of its physicians the baby is gaining strength.

The other thought I have in mind is this, that ever since the Holy Family and its day, ever since the birth of Jesus, there has come into the world a new appreciation of the sacredness of childhood. Whether the little child lives a week or until he is fifty, he has an eternity of development, an individuality of soul that we cannot check or measure. Everything that goes towards the development of the body, mind, or spirit goes towards the development of the whole life; and no one of us can fathom the meaning of the life. Important as is child life from the economic and social standpoint, its real significance is in its sacredness and immortal outlook.

PRESIDENT LOWELL: No one has any question but that this building is as well adapted for its purposes as the building now occupied is ill adapted. The present building is uninhabitable in summer, and yet you know that the summer is the time of greatest infant mortality.

I will now ask PRESIDENT ELIOT to speak to us.

ADDRESS OF DR. CHARLES W. ELIOT

THE Infants' Hospital has carried on for many years a work of great value to this community; but it has never had a proper building, and its endowment has been very small. Its present building is wholly inadequate in size; and it is so situated at the West End that it is impossible to keep it open in summer, the very season when the hospital could do the most good. What an advantage it would be to the beneficent working of the institution if this new building could at once receive all the little patients that are now at Blossom Street; and if the work of the hospital could at once be carried on all the year round, as will be possible on this new, airy site, in close proximity to the Medical School! What a pity it seems that the life-saving work of this hospital should always have been crippled by lack of money, and that it has never had an adequate building, or any suitable foundation! Nevertheless, the Infants' Hospital has not only relieved much suffering and saved many lives, but in connection with the Department of Pediatrics in the Harvard Medical School, it has been during the past twenty years a source of genuine medical progress in regard to the care and feeding of infants.

I want to say a few words about the preventive work which the Infants' Hospital has done in this community. The hospital contends against one of the most terrible evils which afflict modern society, namely, the horrible infant mortality during the first and second years of life. We may say roughly that fifteen per cent of all infants born in Massachusetts die during their first year, the mortality being highest in the first few weeks of life, and higher in the first year than in the second year. We may get some idea of what this mortality means to the community, if we imagine for a moment what it would mean to have the same rate of mortality among children go on for a few years more. If the fifteen per cent mortality of the first year continued through the first five years, more than half of all the children born on the assumed date would be dead; and more than two-thirds of the infants born on the assumed date would be dead within seven years. The survivors to adult life would be but an insignificant fraction. Such is the gravity of the present actual rate of infant mortality.

What are the evils which cause this formidable destruction of infant life? They are the congestion of population, and the diminution of breast-feeding among American women. These are the two evils which cause this terrible infant mortality. Against both of them the Infants' Hospital has been contending for years, and contending with a fair means of success; but every one who has known its history is perfectly aware that the work of the hospital has been limited because it has been carried on in the midst of a much congested population, and in a building very ill-fitted for its work. Much admirable scientific work has been done by the physicians of the hospital in inventing tolerably safe substitutes for mother's milk, and in studying the modification of cow's milk most available in each individual case. In this way the hospital has mitigated the great evil of the diminution of breast-feeding. In conjunction with kindred institutions, the Infants' Hospital and the Department of Pediatrics of the Harvard Medical School have had great success in developing tolerably safe methods of feeding infants artificially. They have stimulated breast-feeding, and diminished the risks of bottle-feeding.

These evils, against which the Infants' Hospital has contended, are comparatively new. The congestion of population was greatly promoted by the factory system, which is not yet three generations old in this country. The general adoption of bottle-feeding among people of American stock is even more recent. Medical science is constantly bringing new forces into play against new evils; and this is a process which is likely to go on generation after generation. That is just what preventive medicine has been doing in good part during the past forty years. We must not be discouraged if great social changes bring with them dangers and exposures before unimagined. The courageous and devoted man of science grapples with the new evils, and in time finds means of resisting them. The educated public must firmly resolve to strengthen the hands of all men and institutions that contend against new evils as they arise. This is just what the Infants' Hospital has been doing, and hopes to do. The public which is intelligent enough to appreciate its work ought to provide it, first, with an ample building fully equipped, and secondly, with an endowment sufficient to secure the permanence of the work, always expanding in quantity and improving in quality. The institution ought not to be completely dependent on annual subscriptions of uncertain amount; it ought to be enabled to pursue its admirable work with steadiness and a just assurance of continuity and durability.

While the Infants' Hospital has been doing this admirable work of rescue and relief, it has been performing another function of high value to the community. It has given thorough instruction concerning the care of infants, sick or well, normal or abnormal, to a long series of students of medicine, nurses, and physicians; and through its pupils has exerted a widespread and very beneficent influence in this and many other communities. This important function the Infants' Hospital will be enabled to discharge more effectively whenever it can begin to use its new building. Every hospital should discharge this educational function, and in discharging it should produce living models of all that is best in the nurse, the physician, and the surgeon. The Infants' Hospital has rendered much of this noble service. In this enlightened community it ought to be enabled through ample gifts of money to render even more.

In conclusion PRESIDENT LOWELL said: It is not only the children whose lives are saved in this hospital that we have to think of; it is not only the mothers of those children; it is not only the far larger number of children visited by the physicians and nurses; it is the benefit to all generations of the knowledge how to save human life. For the slaughter of innocents that goes on year by year, and that medical skill might diminish, we as members of the community are responsible in so far as we have power to prevent it.

EXTRACT FROM MR. BARTLETT'S LETTER

THE following extract from a letter to the Editor of the "Boston Transcript" by Nelson S. Bartlett, Treasurer, published in June, will be of interest to those who care to know something of the financial status and progress of the Infants' Hospital:

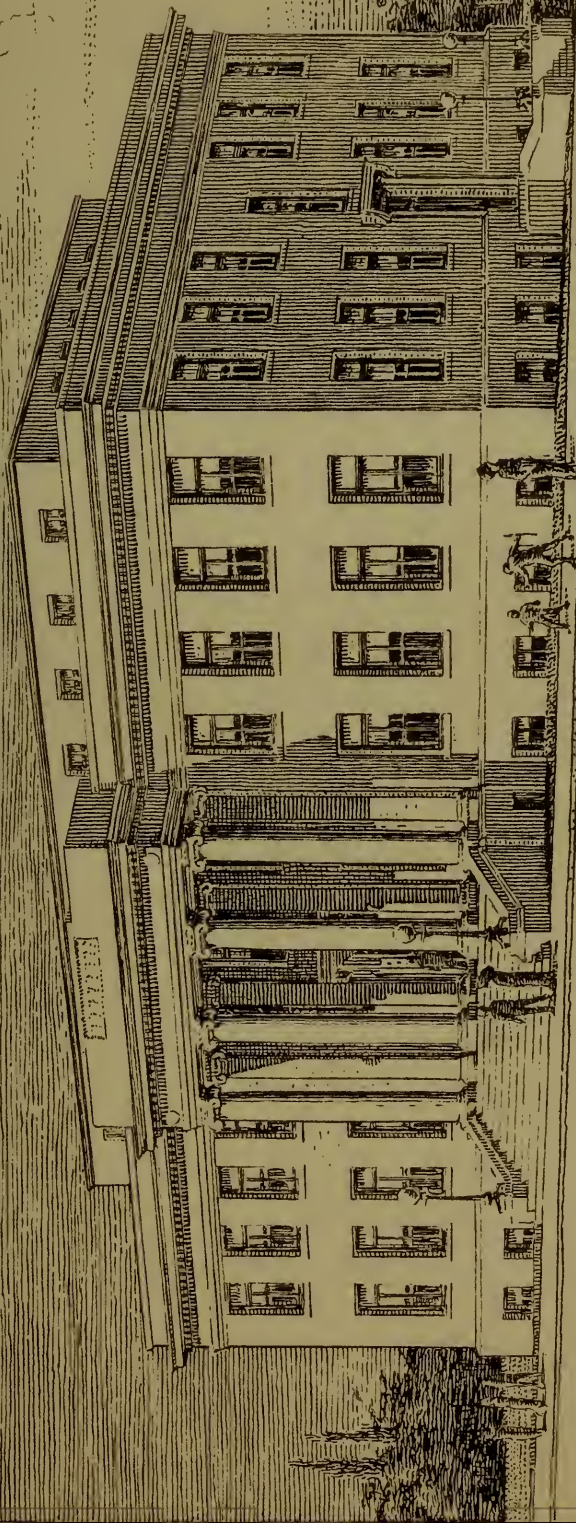

"The hospital has made distinct financial progress during the past sixteen years, as is shown by the increase in its invested funds. Its work has made an appeal to the charitable, with the result that there have been received gifts of considerable amounts, generally bequests, more than half of which were given with no restriction as to the use of the principal. The endeavor has been to preserve these larger unrestricted gifts for investment, and not allow the annual expenses to encroach upon them. This has been only partially accomplished, but with the help of fairs and entertainments and the coming of friends to the rescue at critical times, any disastrous demand on the unrestricted investment funds has been avoided.

"In 1894, when the writer became treasurer, the hospital owned the buildings it occupied on Blossom Street, the present taxable value of which is $20,300. The market value of securities they then owned was say $6000 to $7000, with an income from the same of apparently less than $200 per annum. There were also a few thousand dollars in legacy money which had not been collected. To-day the hospital, in addition to the Blossom Street property, owns four houses in Seabury Place, adjoining the hospital, bought with the idea, now abandoned, of rebuilding in that location. These cost $15,800. The real estate in Blossom Street and Seabury Place (which is free of all mortgage debt) has a taxable value of $29,900. The present valuation of the invested funds of the hospital amounts to about $96,000, which will yield an income this year of something over $4000.

“The foregoing statement, which leaves entirely out of consideration the special building fund, shows a very decent financial progress, which, it is hoped, will be an argument in the hospital's favor with the charitable. With the unrestricted investment funds as an anchor to windward, the hospital has kept at a safe distance from all financial rocks, while facing the disturbing fact of an insufficiency of assured income. As to this matter of income, present or future, important as it may be, it is secondary in importance to the work in hand—which is to raise money enough to finish and equip the new hospital building, without encroaching upon any of the hospital's assets, beyond the special building fund. When this is accomplished, it will be in order to consider the question of income with which to maintain the new hospital.

A VIEW OF THE NEW BUILDING FOR THE INFANTS' HOSPITAL
VANDYKE STREET, NEAR VILA STREET, BOSTON · MDCCCCXI

DESCRIPTION OF NEW BUILDING

THE new fire-proof building of white marble, designed to correspond with the Harvard Medical School buildings nearby, faces south on Van Dyke Street, standing west of the Administration Building. Patients entering on the east side pass into the Reception and Waiting Rooms in the Basement, from which, after examination, they can easily be removed to the proper wards.

Other rooms of importance on the Basement floor besides the Kitchen, Dining-rooms, and Servants' Rooms, are the Research Laboratory, where important investigations will be conducted, the Model Laundry made necessary by the great amount of washing connected with an Infants' Hospital, the Retention Ward, and the Sterilizing Milk Laboratory. There is also an Isolation Ward, which is effectively separated from the remainder of the building.

The visitor entering the building from Van Dyke Street passes through the main entrance into the large and well-lighted main hall. At the right through large windows he sees the Model Nursery, a room where valuable instruction will be given to mothers as well as to nurses and doctors. From the right towards the rear of the main hall the visitor sees the Milk Modifying Room, an important feature of the building. Turning to the left he passes the staircase occupying the central portion of the rear of the main hall, and arrives at the entrance to the large Library, which will contain all the valuable literature on subjects pertaining to the feeding and care of infants. This library will be open to the public.

On the remainder of the first floor the visitor will find many other rooms of general utility, and in the southeast corner he may visit the room devoted entirely to the care of premature babies.

On the second floor will be found two large Wards, accommodating twenty-five babies each, running the full length of the front portion of the building, with sun rooms at the ends. On this floor, also, will be the Operating and Sterilizing Rooms for the treatment of patients who are inmates of the hospital, a Roentgen Ray Room, and a Lecture Room fully equipped with appliances for illustrating lectures on topics connected with early life, in which it is planned to give instruction not only to nurses and doctors, but also to mothers.

One unique feature of the building is the arrangement of the top floor, where rooms for private patients and sleeping-rooms for nurses will be situated. The walls of this story are set in ten feet from the lines of the main building, thus leaving an open space or corridor running around the outside. This provides an excellent outdoor sleeping space for the babies, and can also be used as a roof garden, especially during the hot months of summer.

From the above description it is apparent that a large portion of this new building will be devoted to educational purposes, making this hospital not only a place for the relief of suffering babies, but also a centre of teaching and information available to all who wish to learn.

TWENTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

JANUARY 1, 1911, to JANUARY 1, 1912.

THE INFANTS' HOSPITAL is a Hospital devoted to the medical and surgical treatment of infants.

The patients taken care of in the Hospital wards are under two years of age. The admission of patients is not confined to residents of Boston. Other children under twelve years of age are treated in the Out-patient Department.

Medical and surgical cases not requiring hospital care are received for treatment daily from 9 to 11 A.M. (Sundays and holidays excepted). Cases for admission to the Hospital should be referred to the Out-patient Physician during these hours.

Emergency cases will be admitted at any time if there is an existing vacancy. Questions in regard to such cases, and other matters of information, may be referred by telephone to the Hospital at any time.

TELEPHONE—326 HAYMARKET.

A Post-graduate course of instruction for Nurses is given at the Hospital by the Hospital Staff.

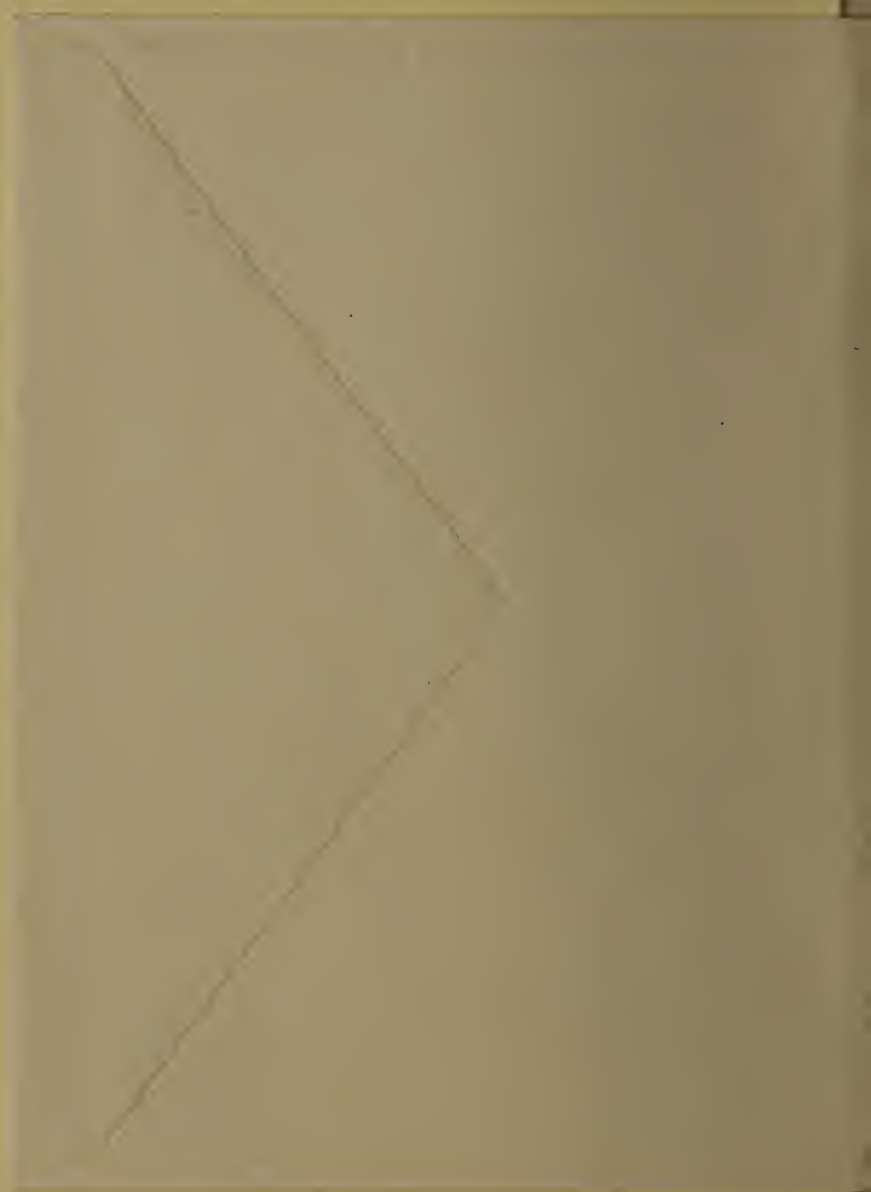

The Hospital gives a course of instruction to Nursery Maids, in the care of infants.

Relatives are admitted to the wards on Sundays from ten to twelve o'clock.

REPORT OF THE MEDICAL DIRECTOR.

IN reviewing the work which has been done in, and the influence for good which has emanated from, the hospital during the past year, much is to be noted. When we appreciate the cramped and inadequate quarters in the midst of which so much has been done to lower the rate of infant mortality, we cannot but be struck with the variety of its interests and the importance of the position which our hospital has held for years and is still markedly holding in the community.

It is here that both parents and physicians, not only from the immediate neighborhood, but from the outlying districts, come for advice on all subjects connected with early life, and we may say that in no other institution is more courteous, kind and friendly attention given to all inquiries. This is something to be proud of in these days of ever-increasing system and routine organization in our hospitals, which, while increasing their efficiency, tends to interfere with their friendly relations with the outside public seeking advice not strictly medical.

Two hundred and seventy-two babies have been treated in the wards during the past year, and two thousand, six hundred and sixty-eight new cases in children of all ages, representing with the old cases fourteen thousand, six hundred and sixty-three visits, have been treated in the Out-Patient department. These numbers, however, do not by any means entirely represent the great work which the hospital is carrying on. Throughout the year efficient service has been done by a trained, especially detailed, nurse in their homes after the babies have left the hospital. This means a great deal from several points of view. For instance, there is a much greater chance for the permanent recovery of the sick baby, when it leaves the hospital, if it can be under the supervision of a nurse trained not only to look after its food, but to instruct the entire family in the general hygiene of the home. In this way, also, a great step is taken in the prevention of disease.

The attention of those who are interested in infant welfare has been centred during the past year on the progress which is being made in the erection of the new hospital and in the efforts which have been called forth for its completion. On the 24th of May a reception was held at the Harvard Medical School, and appeals were made for funds to finish the building. On this occasion it was shown by President Lowell, Bishop Lawrence, Dr. J. Collins Warren, and President Emeritus Eliot, that something more than a humanitarian project was asking for help. They explained how the new hospital was to be an educational centre, where everything pertaining to early life would be studied; how, also, there was to be a library devoted to child life, and open to all who have an interest in the reduction of infant mortality. A liberal response followed this appeal, but a large sum still remains to be subscribed before the hospital can be equipped for occupation. The exterior of the building has been completed, also the rough interior. The financial condition as it now stands will be given in the report of the Building and Maintenance Committee.

The Milk Fund, as usual, has been dispensed from the hospital as the chief centre, and especial research work on infant mortality has been carried on by members of the staff, thus widening the sphere of the hospital's usefulness.

Diplomas have been given to eleven graduate nurses and to fourteen nursery maids during the past year. The public is showing its approval of their joint training by its demand for a still greater number of nursery maids, as shown by a considerable waiting list.

The Directors appreciate greatly the aid given to the running of the hospital by those friends who, on April 23rd, gave a pop concert and a bridge tournament. The Directors offer their sincere thanks to the members of the Medical and Surgical Staff for their efficient services under most adverse conditions. The Directors present their thanks to the Ladies' Aid for its devotion to the work of supplying the hospital needs, and also to the Visitors to the Wards for their unfailing support. Especial mention should be made of the interest in the hospital finances, which the Ways and Means Committee has been taking, and of its efforts to increase the annual income. Appreciative thanks are offered to a number of ladies who gave money to buy six new cribs.

The Directors wish to draw the attention of the Corporation to the fact that the annual expense for repairs is becoming greater on account of the age of the buildings. To offset this expense the list of annual subscribers should be increased by the personal efforts of all who are interested in the hospital. It is evident, also, that funds for finishing the new building should be continually solicited, as the old buildings will soon be beyond repair.

It is with great regret that I have to record the loss to the hospital, by death, of the following members of the Corporation: Mr. H. Garrettson Spooner, Mrs. Francis I. Amory, Mrs. J. Arthur Beebe, and Mrs. E. V. R. Thayer; also that of the following friends and subscribers: Mr. F. B. Greene, Mrs. James M. Barnard, Mrs. Samuel Torrey Morse, Miss Sarah E. Read, Mr. B. S. Turner, Mrs. O. F. Wadsworth, Mr. Godfrey Morse, Mrs. Davies Wilson, Mrs. Samuel H. Winkley, and Dr. Charles G. Weld.

The difficulties of administration, arising from the limited expenditure allowed and from the lack of proper accommodations, have been so great that especial praise is due to Miss Farquhar, the Hospital Superintendent, and to Miss Aubin, the Assistant Secretary, for their admirable and practical management.

The following tables show the diseases treated in the wards during the past year.

REPORT OF BUILDING AND MAINTENANCE COMMITTEE.

ON the 21st day of December, 1911, ground was broken for the new building, near the Harvard Medical School. Arrangements were made with the architects and contractors to build on the instalment plan, contracts to be entered into from time to time as the funds on hand permitted, the price of the whole, however, being fixed. At present the outside walls and roof have been completed, the rough flooring has been laid, the partitions, rough plumbing, rough heating, and electrical work are now almost installed. The next logical contract is to connect the building with the Harvard Medical School tunnel, from which heat, light and power are to come, and to make the necessary arrangements for heating the building so that the plastering and other finishing work can proceed. The group of contracts which the architects advise letting together now will call for a little over $20,000. Before these contracts, or any contracts of substantial amount, can be entered into, however, additional money must be raised.

The original fund for the new building, subscribed about ten years ago, amounted to approximately $80,000. A part of this was used to purchase the land from Harvard College. A renewed effort to increase the amount was started last spring. After the meeting held at the Harvard Medical School, an appeal in the form of a circular was mailed to about three thousand persons. Another appeal in the form of a report of the meeting of May 24th was widely circulated this fall. In response to the two appeals donations amounting to $44,645 have been received. A subscription of $5,000 has been promised on condition that sufficient funds to complete the building be paid in by next June. To receive this $5,000 it is necessary that we raise $75,355.

The Committee urges the members of the Corporation and all friends of the Hospital to assist in the effort to procure the funds necessary to complete the building. If each will do his share NOW by sending some contribution, large or small, and by inducing others to subscribe, we can accomplish our purpose. Unless all help, the completion of this work may be indefinitely postponed. This is the psychological moment for a united effort. The cause has been well advertised, and is in the public mind. All that remains is a little personal effort on the part of those interested. Let each do what he can in whatever way he can. The result, if all work earnestly, will be success.

Subscribers should be asked to send their donations, made payable to the "Infants' Hospital Fund," to Messrs. Kidder, Peabody & Company, 115 Devonshire Street, Boston.

INFANTS' HOSPITAL.

37 BLOSSOM STREET, BOSTON.

INCORPORATED JANUARY 19, 1881.

THIRTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

JANUARY 1, 1912, to JANUARY 1, 1913.

THE INFANTS' HOSPITAL is a Hospital devoted to the medical and surgical treatment of infants.

The patients taken care of in the Hospital wards are under two years of age. The admission of patients is not confined to residents of Boston. Other children under twelve years of age are treated in the Out-patient Department.

Medical and surgical cases not requiring hospital care are received for treatment daily from 9 to 11 A.M. (Sundays and holidays excepted). Cases for admission to the Hospital should be referred to the Out-patient Physician during these hours.

Emergency cases will be admitted at any time if there is an existing vacancy. Questions in regard to such cases, and other matters of information, may be referred by telephone to the Hospital at any time.

TELEPHONE — 326 HAYMARKET.

A Post-graduate course of instruction for Nurses is given at the Hospital by the Hospital Staff.

The Hospital gives a course of instruction to Nursery Maids, in the care of Infants.

Relatives are admitted to the wards on Sunday mornings from ten to twelve o'clock.

REPORT OF THE MEDICAL DIRECTOR.

IMPORTANT features of the work which has been carried on during the past year have been the efficiency in perfection of system, true humanitarian interest and aid to the poor, which have existed in and have emanated from most cramped and inadequate quarters. The building is old and needs continual repair; its time for use as a hospital has long since passed, and were it not for the unwavering devotion, skill and broad knowledge of the requisites for caring for sick babies, of those in charge, the work would have inevitably come to an end.

There is a special phase of the work of the Infants' Hospital which is not found elsewhere. It combines the skilled and modern care of the first two years of life with being a center where all knowledge of health and disease, at this time of life, can be obtained and is freely given.

Even in its unprepossessing condition the Hospital stands as an example of what can be accomplished in the reduction of infant mortality, a subject which lately has been one of the leading questions of the day. It is not, however, merely this phase of the work which makes the Infants' Hospital unique. It is well known that it is not merely the physician's rôle in the question of disease in early life which is of importance in the questions of infant welfare. One among other factors in the problem, which has been carried out and has proved eminently satisfactory in the work of the Hospital, is the combination in training of graduate nurses and nursery maids. Here as in no other hospital, that we know of, is given to graduate nurses and nursery maids an opportunity for education in what might be called "team work." Physicians as well as the laity, who are familiar with this "team work," greatly appreciate it. The advantage to the graduate nurse of obtaining special post-graduate training is evident, and graduate nurses from all parts of the country avail themselves of this opportunity for advanced training in a class of cases which receives little attention in the general hospitals. The demand for nursery maids often exceeds greatly the supply, but owing to the very limited accommodations we are unable to increase the number of pupils. Diplomas have been given during the year to eight post-graduate nurses and to fifteen nursery maids.

It is hoped that friends of the Hospital will endeavor to increase our list of annual subscribers as additional income from this source is imperative.

In connection with the question of infant mortality the Medical Director again draws the attention of the philanthropic public to the crying need of getting out of the old tumble down, unhygienic building which now represents the Infants' Hospital, and of supplying sufficient money to finish the new hospital. No more philanthropic, important and practical charity exists than the supplying of funds for the completion of the building of the new Infants' Hospital and for its maintenance. It would seem that for the honor and self-respect of our city these funds should be forthcoming.

In the new building babies can be received in the summer months, while in our present Hospital this has not been deemed advisable. Here also opportunity will be given to carry on the very necessary research work which every modern hospital should provide for, if the number of deaths in the early months of life is to be reduced.

Owing to the inadequate number of beds only two hundred and ninety-five admissions have been made in the wards during the past year. In the Out-Patient Department two thousand, three hundred and twenty-four new cases in children of all ages have applied for treatment, and the total number of visits made during the year was twelve thousand, six hundred and seventy-three.

It is with great regret that the Medical Director has to record the loss to the Hospital by death of a member of the Corporation, Mrs. F. R. Sears, and of the following subscribers: Mrs. J. M. Crafts, John Templeton Coolidge, Mrs. F. Cunningham, Mrs. G. R. Emmer-ton, Wolcott H. Johnson, Mrs. Moorfield Storey, Benjamin Vaughn, and Mrs. Henry Woods. Miss Bessie MacLean, a most capable nurse of the post-graduate course, died of mastoiditis and meningitis on March 24, 1912. Miss MacLean, though in the Hospital for only a few weeks, endeared herself to everyone.

The Directors wish to present their sincere thanks to the members of the Hospital Committee, the Ladies' Aid Society, the House Committee, the Committee on Ways and Means, the Committee on Nursery Maids, and to the Visitors in the Wards, for their interest in and their work for the Hospital.

The Directors wish to express their appreciation of the good services of, and their regret that overwork has necessitated the resignation of, Drs. James R. Torbet, Arthur R. Kimpton, Edward L. Young and Clarence E. Bryant. The Directors also offer their sincere thanks to the members of the Medical and Surgical Staff for their remarkably efficient and arduous work in the very limited space which the Hospital provides. The Directors feel that too much praise cannot be given to the Hospital Superintendent, Miss Margaret Farquhar, and to Miss Helen Aubin, the Assistant Secretary, through whose efforts the many difficult Hospital details have been managed most admirably.

REPORT OF BUILDING AND MAINTENANCE COMMITTEE.

DURING the past year work on the new building has progressed slowly, but continuously. New contracts have been entered into from time to time as the proceeds on hand justified. Considerable delay and some expense has been caused, however, by the fact that subscriptions come in so slowly. The cost of the new building to date (including amount for work now being done) is something over $142,000. It is estimated that approximately $60,000 will be needed to finish and equip it. The next contract, including general carpenter work and inside finish, calls for about $20,000. Of this amount, the Committee has on hand not more than $2000. In other words, an additional $18,000 must be contributed before work can proceed, after the present contracts are concluded.

Earnest efforts have been made since the last Annual Meeting to raise the necessary funds. An appeal was made through the advertising columns of the Saturday Evening Post. Although the actual financial response to this appeal was not large, nevertheless the replies received show clearly that persons throughout the United States, and even in other countries, are greatly interested in the work of our Hospital.

An additional argument for finishing the new Hospital speedily is furnished by our relations to the institutions which are to surround our new home. It is expected that the building of these institutions will be finished in the spring or in the early autumn. It seems important that we complete our building at the same time, not only as a matter of obligation to our neighbors, but as a matter of policy in showing our ability to do our share in the development of the great medical undertaking.

The Committee urges the members of the Corporation and all friends of the Hospital to assist in the effort to procure the funds necessary to complete the building. If each will do his share NOW by sending some contribution, large or small, and inducing others to subscribe, we can accomplish our purpose. Unless all help, the completion of this work may be indefinitely postponed. We have almost reached our goal. Nearly three-fourths of the total amount has been obtained. We should neither fail nor delay in procuring the last $60,000.

Subscribers should be asked to send their donations, made payable to "Infants Hospital Fund," to Messrs. Kidder, Peabody & Company, 115 Devonshire Street, Boston.
